

What's Your Fitness DNA?

Take a quick self-assessment and decide if you are making the most of your time and money when it comes to your fitness regimen.

- Am I working out consistently? Department of Health and Human Services recommends at least 150 minutes of moderate aerobic activity or 75 minutes of vigorous activity per week.

- Am I motivated to work out on my own?

- Do I ENJOY my workouts? Even look forward to them?

- Do I enjoy working out alone or with other people? i.e., Running v. Boot Camp

- Am I getting a variety of physical activities and workouts?

- How often do I check in at my gym/studio? (If less than twice a month, RED FLAG!)

- Do I have an instructor or trainer I follow?

- Do I frequently cancel/reschedule my training sessions?

- What amenities and/or services am I using at my gym?

- Do I use more than one area of the gym? (If you don't know HOW to use the machines + equipment, RED FLAG)

- Do I take more than one class at the gym/studio?

- Do I have multiple fitness memberships? If so, do I use them equally?

- Am I seeing or tracking results of my workouts and/or overall goals?

- Do I ever work out at home?

- Have I purchased home fitness equipment and allowed it to go unused?

- What physical activities FEEL like fun or PLAY? Jumping rope? Dancing? Check out <http://checkli.com/checklists/view/59f9f85c3f800>. The Fitness Play-List can drive what workouts most motivate you.

- If you are not clear on most of these questions or hit an 'ah-ha' that you are wasting your money for no results...it's time to seek a new fitness program that suits YOUR Fitness DNA!
