

Bake Gingerbread Cookies

Cook time ~4.5 hours // Serving ~ 24 cookies

• What you'll need:

- 3 cups of flour
- 2 teaspoons of ground ginger
- 1 teaspoon of baking soda
- 1/4 teaspoon of ground nutmeg
- 1/4 teaspoon of salt
- 3/4 cup of softened butter
- 1/2 cup of molasses
- 3/4 cup of firmly backed brown sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 teaspoon of pure vanilla extract
- 1 teaspoon of ground cinnamon

• Directions:

- Combine the flour, ginger, cinnamon, baking soda, nutmeg and salt in a large mixing bowl, then set it aside
- In a separate large mixing bowl, combine butter and brown sugar
- Add molasses, egg and vanilla extract to the butter-brown sugar mix, and mix thoroughly
- Begin combining the flour mixture (bit by bit) into the butter-brown sugar mixture, stirring strongly as you combine them
- Once all is combined, press the dough flat into a disk shape, wrap it up with plastic wrap by rolling it onto itself. Keep it refrigerated for 4 hours (best overnight)
- Once the dough is ready to bake, preheat the oven to 350 degrees F
- Unroll the wrapped dough back into its flat disk shape onto a lightly floured surface, and be sure it is roughly 1/4 inch thickness
- Begin separating our your cookie shapes -- with a Gingerbread Man cutter, if you have one or simply into classic circles
- Place cookies on ungreased baking sheet 1-inch distance from one another
- Bake cookies for 8-10 minutes or until the edges of the cookies appear to have browned
- Cool the cookies on the baking sheets for a couple of minutes before removing them
- Remove the cookies, and then decorate as you wish before serving them
